

I'm driven and energized by creativity. I love developing full-stack digital experiences to delight and engage users while delivering data-backed results. I strive to lead with honesty and positivity.

Motus, Boston, MA

For the last five years, I've worked across and grown with the Motus organization during our multiple acquisitions and rapid expansion. I've succeeded in roles from standing up and developing a digital marketing environment to leading the initiatives at the next turn of the roadmap.

Director, Strategic Innovation (07/20 - Present)

My current role allows me to design, develop, market, test, and iterate on cutting-edge ideas and products as an individual contributor. I set up lower-cost proofs-of-concept enabling the Product team to bring new ideas to market with data-driven confidence.

Research And Development Manager (05/18 - 07/20)

Manager, Creative Services & Front End Development (12/17 - 05/18)

Manager, Front End Development & Digital Marketing (08/16 - 12/17)

Manager, Front End Development (08/15 - 07/16)

SmartPak Equine, Plymouth, MA

I was lucky to spend five years and progress rapidly in my career with SmartPak, a nine-time INC 500/5000 honoree and seven-time Bizrate Platinum Award-winning direct-to-consumer, marketing-led, entrepreneurial organization, where I held these roles:

Manager, New Media (08/12 - 08/15)

Interactive Developer (12/11 - 08/12)

Interactive Designer (04/11 - 12/11)

Jr. Interactive Designer (11/10 - 04/11)

Contract Web Designer (09/10 - 11/10)

New England Institute of Art, Brookline, MA

Bachelor of Science, Graphic Design
